Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities:
 - The specification should be revised to include line numbers to aid in the examination and revision of the specification.
 - Page 1, ¶2 – “This efficient and ease” should be changed to “This efficiency and ease”

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1-2 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Pogrebisky et al. (“Pogrebisky,” US005958008A).

As per independent claim 1, Pogrebisky teaches a method for displaying patterns of utilization of a resource, wherein said resource includes a plurality of objects, the method comprising: providing a plurality of graphical formats from which a format is selected for displaying patterns of utilization(column 12, lines 34-48 and column 28, lines 35-63); receiving a first input, the first input invoking the selection of a first graphical format from said plurality of formats (column 12, lines 34-48 and column 28, lines 35-63); receiving a second input, the second input comprising a query regarding a particular utilization of said resource (column 28, lines 12-19 and column 30, lines 6-16); receiving information regarding utilization of said resource from a system (column 30, 6-16); processing said information to a format conforming with said query and said selected first graphical format (column 28, lines 35-63); displaying said processed information in said first graphical format (column 28, lines 35-63); and allowing the selection of a second graphical format from said plurality of graphical formats for altering said display to show the processed information in a second selected format (column 28, lines 35-63).

As per claim 2, which is dependent on claim 1, Pogrebisky teaches that the utilization is visitor utilization, said resource is a web site, said objects are web pages, said system is a web site analysis program and wherein the query may request additional information not initially supplied by the web site analysis program and wherein any such additional information is requested and received from the web site analysis program (column 27, lines 30-46 and column 29-30, lines 44-16).
